Sister Joseph Andrew
Bogdanowicz, OP

“Grain that is Not Spread Rots”

Reflecting of the Twentieth Anniversary of the Dominican Sisters of Mary, Mother of the Eucharist

With these words, in the year 1217, St. Dominic sent forth the earliest members of his order, to preach and teach in a world desperately in need of Truth. Today, nearly 800 years later, and on the shoulders of countless saints, our own Ann Arbor-based Dominican Sisters of Mary, Mother of the Eucharist, continue this same mission of preaching and teaching and witnessing and seed-sowing. Our world, too, is in desperate need of Truth. We are delighted to welcome back to our podium the ever-joyful Sr. Joseph Andrew, OP, who, as one of the four foundresses of the Sisters of Mary, will reflect on the 20th Anniversary of the Order, and their growth from 4 to over 130 Sisters today! Our speakers in May and October always share a unique Marian perspective as well, and so Sister’s talk will, of course, discuss the role of Our Lady in the life of the Sisters named in her honor.

Whether you have known the sisters for nearly their whole time in our area, or you are unfamiliar with their amazing work, you will not be disappointed to come hear Sr. Joseph Andrew reflect on twenty years of blessings and graces, joys and trials, laughter and tears. If you, or anyone you know, needs to be encouraged about the state of Religious Vocations, and the ongoing work of the New Evangelization, this is the talk to hear. Come one, come all!
